CHAMPAGNE BAR COCKTAIL

Bellini with Ruinart Brut R _____ 20,00€

The Bellini cocktail was created in 1948 in Venice, specifically in Harry's bar in Venice, next to the Grand Canal, just outside Piazza San Marco, where Giuseppe Cipriano was born. Traditionally it is made with Prosecco (sparkling wine from Italy) and white peach puree. We have replaced it with Ruinart Brut champagne and peach puree.

This cocktail is inspired by the designer Marcel Wanders and represents the harmony and the mixture of colors, something that certainly represents in his works. Kettel one vodka (Holland) Orange blossom liqueur, passion fruit finished with Moët & Chandon Brut Impérial. Makes this cocktail a work of art.

The Moonwalk with Moët & Chandon _____ 18,00€

The first thing Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin sipped upon returning to earth in 1969 was Joe Gilmore's Moonwalk featuring a combination of grapefruit, orange liqueur and a hint of rose water, topped off with Champagne, Moët & Chandon Brut Impérial. Joe, the Head Barman at the Savoy Hotel's American Bar invented this cocktail to commemorate the first moon landing.

French 75 with Moët & Chandon _____ 18,00€

As the story goes; during WW I some America soldiers stumbled upon a stash of gin and champagne while marching through the French countryside. Not being able to satisfy their craving for a proper Tom Collins due to a lack of club soda, they used the champagne in its place and the French 75 was born. We have transformed it for you. Moët & Chandon Brut Impérial, lemon juice and sugar that will make you return to Paris.
